Mr. Alex T. Holbrook
9 E. Park Street
Jersey City, N.J.

Dear Sir:

I happened to be in the Manhattan Stamp Company the other day, and Mr. Miller asked me if I knew where a million-ruble note could be obtained. He gave me your address and said he would like to have me write you on the subject.

I would suggest that you get in touch with Mr. George H. Blake, 12 Highland Avenue, Jersey City, and Guttag Bros. 52 Wall Street, New York.

If you are interested in coins, medals, paper money, etc. possibly you would care to become a member of our Society. The annual dues are but Five Dollars, and membership entitles one to all the publications of the year issued by this Society. If you decide to make application, I should be very glad to have you fill out and return the enclosed card, and would take pleasure in placing your name before our Council at its next meeting.

Very truly yours,

Acting Secretary & Curator
